Every phase of love has been laid bare before me. The unanimous verdict was that girls should be told that marriage is the probable outcome of their existence, a natural result—

when the right man is met, which will be an honorable one, one who holds youth and virtue sacred—in truth, the rose bloom which jewels her existence.

It is also held by this vast majority of writers that great good is accom-plished in pointing out to unsophisticated young girls where the pitfalls lie in love's path and the stumbling blocks. There are danger signals to hesitating, weak natures that might love unwisely and too well. To sum up the matter, girls should always

HOW SINGLE BLESSED-NESS MAY TURN OUT

'I never wrote for money, I have no wish for fame, But the thought it was my duty stirred my heart to flame. I've longed to put my dreams in songs, like the wild bird on the bough,

Just as I felt the soulful song and nature taught me how. The free bird sings where none can hear but the silent, sighing trees, Where it can never touch the ear, but dies upon the breeze."

Should young girls be encouraged to believe marriage to be the goal toward which their ambitions and hopes should be aimed?" A letter from an aged, single minister of the gospel came to me on a bright May morning.

year ago, making this inquiry. The same mail brought me-among more than a hundred others—three letters from widely different points which had a direct bearing upon his query. One was from a young girl of 18, a slavey in a sweatshop in New York. She wrote in part: "God bless you for giving me the hope that some day I may meet one who will care for me enough to ask me to marry. It is the one bright jewel of hope that makes my life of toll endurable."

CORNER FOR COOKS

SANDWICHES

For cheese and green pepper sandwiches put through the chopper, with salt, three green peppers with the seed and pith removed, and a half pound of American cheese. Cut bread rath-er thicker than usual, spread, put to-gether, and toast. Plain cheese may be used in the same way.
